

House Resolution No. 1152

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State students who have displayed exceptional accomplishments thus far in life; and

Whereas, Courtney Dull is a second-grader at Weaubleau Elementary School in the Weaubleau R-III School District which educates nearly five hundred students through the efforts of more than forty certificated staffers who are located in one elementary school and one high school; and

Whereas, Courtney Dull has attained considerable distinction as the author of the winning work in the early elementary category of the My Favorite Teacher Awards contest; and

Whereas, Courtney Dull selected Mrs. Walden, the art teacher at Weaubleau Elementary School, as the subject of the highly creative, sensitive description of her favorite teacher; and

Whereas, among Mrs. Walden's diverse characteristics which attracted Courtney Dull are her variety of art assignments, awarding of points which accrue toward a class party, nice personality, pretty clothes, student contests with bubblegum prizes, personal generosity, and willingness to say nice things about her students; and

Whereas, when she is not at Weaubleau Elementary School, Courtney Dull enjoys helping her mother decorate cakes for special occasions; and

Whereas, the My Favorite Teacher Awards are sponsored by the Missouri Federation of Republican Women in cooperation with the No Child Left Behind Program; and

Whereas, in addition to her certificate for participating, Courtney Dull received a gift and special recognition with her favorite teacher on the floor of the Missouri House of Representatives and in the capitol rotunda:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the literary skills of Courtney Dull and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations for penning the winning essay in the kindergarten to fourth-grade category of the 2004 My Favorite Teacher contest and our best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Courtney Dull, daughter of April and Jason Dull of Weaubleau, Missouri.
